ALFRED C. CODET,

Notary Public for Kings County.

Certificate filed in New York Co.

STATE OF NEW YORK, }
City and County of New York. } ss:

I, EDWARD F. REILLY, Clerk of the City and County of New York, and also Clerk of the Supreme Court for the said city and county, the same being a Court of Record, do hereby certify, that Alfred C. Codet has filed in the Clerk's Office of the County of New York, a certified copy of his appointment as Notary Public for the County of Kings, with his autograph signature, and was at the time of taking the proof or acknowledgment of the annexed instrument, duly authorized to take the same. And further, that I am well acquainted with the handwriting of such notary, and verily believe the signature to the said certificate or proof of acknowledgments to be genuine.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of the said Court and County, the 20th day of Feb., 1890.

[SEAL.]

EDWARD F. REILLY,

Clerk.

INDORSEMENT.

I, GEORGE P. ANDREWS, one of the Justices of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, in and for the first Judicial District, do hereby give my consent and approbation to the filing and recording of the foregoing certificate in the office of the Secretary of State, and of the Clerk of the County of New York.

Dated New York, February 20th, 1890.

GEORGE P. ANDREWS, one of the Justices of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, in and for the First Judicial District.

STATE OF NEW YORK, }
City and County of New York, } ss :

I, EDWARD F. REILLY, Clerk of the said City and County, and Clerk of the Supreme Court of said State for said County, do certify that I have compared the preceding with the original certificate of Incorporation of RACQUET AND TENNIS CLUB, on file in my office, and that the same is a correct duplicate [SEAL.] therefrom, and of the whole of such original.

Endorsed, filed and recorded Feb. 20, 1890.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name, and affixed my official seal, this 20th day of Feb., 1890.

EDWARD F. REILLY,

BY-LAWS.

BY-LAW I.

MANAGEMENT.

SECTION 1. The property and affairs of the Club shall be controlled by twenty Managers to be elected from its regular members.

SEC. 2. The Managers shall at their first meeting after each annual election elect by ballot from their own number a President, Vice-President, Treasurer and Secretary and a Finance Committee of three, a House Committee of three, and such other committees as they shall deem necessary, to serve for one year, or until their successors shall be elected. Such four officers, or any of them, and the committees or members thereof may be at any time removed by the Managers and the vacancies filled.

SEC. 3. The Managers shall from time to time make rules in accordance with the powers herein given or on matters not herein provided for; take cognizance of all infractions of the By-Laws and Rules; and cause to be prepared annually a general report of the affairs of the Club, and the report to be printed and a copy forwarded to each member. They shall have power to remit penalties for offences against the Rules, and for unintentional violations of the By-Laws.

SEC. 4. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Club and of the Managers; with the Secretary sign all written contracts and obligations, except bank cheques ; perform the usual duties pertaining to his office ; and be ex-officio a member of all committees.

SEC. 5. The Vice-President shall have all the powers and perform the duties of the President in the latter's absence.

SEC. 6. The Treasurer shall collect and receive all moneys due and belonging to the Club ; have the custody of all the funds, securities and title deeds ; and pay all bills on the certificate of their correctness by the House Committee. He shall keep regular and correct accounts ; submit to the Managers a monthly report ; and submit at each annual meeting of the Club a report showing its financial condition.

SEC. 7. The Secretary shall keep the minutes and records, and conduct the correspondence of the Club and of the Managers ; send out all notices ; with the President sign all written contracts and obligations, except bank cheques ; have the custody of the seal ; and perform the usual duties pertaining to his office.

SEC. 8. The Finance Committee shall, subject to the control of the Managers, examine and audit all the accounts of the Club annually ; and make such other examinations and submit reports of such financial matters as the Managers may direct. It shall be its duty to make suggestions and recommendations to the Managers in reference to the care and control of the finances of the Club ; and act as an advisory committee to the Treasurer when called upon by him.

SEC. 9. The House Committee shall, subject to the direction and control of the Managers, direct and control the expenses, charges and internal management of the Club ; receive and act upon suggestions and complaints, and enforce observance of all rules for the use of the Club House and the conduct of all persons therein. It shall keep regular and correct accounts, and submit to the Managers a monthly report of the stock of supplies on hand and the amount sold during the month previous ; and the names of such members and visitors as are in arrears, and the sums respectively due by them. All the powers herein conferred upon the House Committee and such other powers as may from time to time be added shall be subject to revision by the Managers.

SEC. 10. The interpretation of the By-Laws and Rules shall rest with the Managers.

BY-LAW II.

MEETINGS.

SECTION 1. There shall be an annual meeting of the Club on the second Saturday in February, at 8 P. M. If no quorum be present the presiding officer shall adjourn the meeting to any other day at the same hour.

SEC. 2. A special meeting of the Club shall be called by the President to consider a specific subject, or subjects, upon the written request of twenty members; ten days' notice of the time, place and purpose of the meeting shall be sent to each member. If no quorum be present the presiding officer may adjourn such special meeting to any other day and hour.

SEC. 3. One-tenth of the whole number of regular members shall constitute a quorum, except in cases affected by Section 11 of By-Law IV, when one-fifth shall constitute a quorum. Regular members only may vote at a meeting.

SEC. 4. The Managers shall hold a meeting at least once in each month, except July, August and September. A special meeting of the Managers may be called at any time by order of the President, and shall be called by him upon the written request of five Managers.

SEC. 5. A majority of the Managers is a quorum for the transaction of business.

BY-LAW III.

ELECTION OF MANAGERS.

SECTION 1. At the annual meeting of the Club in 1891, twenty Managers shall be elected, who shall divide themselves into four classes to serve for one, two, three, and four years respectively; and thereafter at each annual meeting of the Club there shall be elected five Managers to replace the outgoing class and to serve for four years or until their successors are elected.

SEC. 2. The Managers shall on or before the fifth day of each January, appoint a nominating committee of five from its own number, who shall select candidates to be voted for at the ensuing election of Managers. The names of the candidates so selected must be posted for fifteen days, and of all other candidates must be posted for ten days, preceding such election on a club bulletin board.

SEC. 3. The election of Managers shall be by ballot; the presiding officer shall appoint tellers who shall also act as inspectors, and the polls shall be kept open for three hours.

SEC. 4. The five candidates receiving the greatest number of votes shall be deemed to be chosen at such election.

SEC. 5. In case the tellers show that all the vacancies in the class of Managers have not been filled at the election, the meeting shall adjourn for two weeks, at which adjourned meeting the election from the candidates to fill those vacancies shall proceed as hereinbefore provided.

SEC. 6. A vacancy existing among the Managers from any cause other than the expiration of a term shall be filled by themselves for the remainder of the term of the Manager whose retirement has caused such vacancy.

BY-LAW IV.

MEMBERSHIP.

SECTION 1. The number of regular members shall not exceed eight hundred. Any person may become a regular member of the Club upon election by the Managers and the due payment of the initiation fee and yearly dues.

SEC. 2. Every candidate for regular membership must be proposed as follows: He shall be proposed and seconded by two members, not managers; the name, profession and residence of the candidate and the name of his proposer and seconder in their respective handwritings shall be inserted in a book kept for that purpose and the name of the candidate, his residence and the names of his proposer and seconder posted on a club bulletin board, for fourteen days before any action can be taken thereon by the Managers; and the candidate must be twenty-one years of age when balloted for.

SEC. 3. Candidates duly proposed as above provided, shall be balloted for by the Managers for admission to the Club; more than one adverse ballot shall exclude.

SEC. 4. The number of non-resident members shall not exceed two hundred. Any person not residing within fifty miles of, or doing business in the City of New York, may become a non-resident member upon election by the Managers and the due payment of the initiation fee and yearly dues.

SEC. 5. Every candidate for non-resident membership must be proposed and balloted for as is provided for candidates for regular membership. Non-resident members shall have all the rights and privileges, except such as are expressly reserved in these By-laws, and be subject to all the liabilities and penalties of regular members.

SEC. 6. A non-resident member may become a regular member, upon the first occurrence of a vacancy in the list of regular members, by notifying the Secretary of his desire for such membership and paying to the Treasurer the excess between the amount of the initiation fee then required from regular members and that originally paid by him, and also the excess in the annual dues then required from regular members and that paid by him for the current year.

SEC. 7. A regular member may become a non-resident member upon the first occurrence of a vacancy in the list of non-resident members, by notifying the Secretary of his desire for, and right to such membership, and upon his application being approved by the Managers. He shall not be entitled to any return or rebate of his initiation fee, or of his annual dues for the current year.

SEC. 8. On the election of a candidate the Secretary shall notify his proposer of the fact, and if such elected candidate shall not within thirty days after his election pay to the treasurer his initiation fee and annual dues, his election shall be void.

SEC. 9. A member desiring to resign from the Club shall notify the Secretary in writing ; and unless he do so before the first day of November, he shall be liable to pay his annual dues for the succeeding year. No member can resign while indebted to the Club.

SEC. 10. Any member may be reprimanded, suspended or expelled for cause by a vote of two-thirds of all the Managers. A copy of the charges preferred against a member shall be served upon him at least ten days before the meeting at which they shall be considered, together with a notice of the time and place of the meeting, and he shall have an opportunity to be heard in his defense.

SEC. 11. The President must, upon the written request of thirty members presented within twenty days after any member has been suspended or expelled, call a special meeting of the Club to consider such action. Ten days' notice in writing of the time, place and purpose of such meeting, must be sent to the person who has been suspended or expelled. At any such meeting the action of the Managers may be annulled, modified or changed in any way.

BY-LAW V.

INITIATION FEES AND DUES.

SECTION 1. The initiation fee for regular members shall be one hundred dollars. When the membership reaches seven hundred the initiation fee shall be and remain two hundred dollars. And the annual dues seventy-five dollars.

SEC. 2. The initiation fee for non-resident members shall be one hundred dollars. When the membership reaches one hundred the initiation fee shall be and remain two hundred dollars. And the annual dues forty dollars.

SEC. 3. A candidate elected to membership after the first day of May shall be required to pay only one-half of the dues for the current year.

SEC. 4. The annual dues shall be due on the first day of November. On the first day of December the names of the members in default shall be posted on a club bulletin board. Every member whose dues shall not have been paid on or before the first day of January shall cease to be a member, unless he be excused by a vote of two-thirds of the Managers present at a meeting.

BY-LAW VI.

VISITORS.

SECTION 1. Visitors may be admitted to the privileges of the Club house or portions thereof for such periods, not exceeding thirty days, and on such terms as the Managers shall from time to time determine.

SEC. 2. Officers of the army and navy of the United States may become visitors for a period of one year upon being proposed and elected as is provided for the proposal and election of candidates for regular membership; and the payment of the sum of seventy-five dollars.

SEC. 3. Any person not residing within fifty miles of, or doing business in, the City of New York, may become a visitor for three or six months upon being proposed and elected as is provided for the proposal and election of candidates for regular membership, except that the insertions in the book and the posting on the bulletin board need be made only for seven days before any action can be taken thereon by the Managers; and upon the payment of a fee of fifty dollars for three months, and seventy-five dollars for six months.

SEC. 4. Sons of members, not of age, may be admitted as visitors under such restrictions as the Managers may from time to time determine.

SEC. 5. The Managers may cancel and revoke an admission of, or invitation to, a visitor, on such terms as they may deem proper.

BY-LAW VII.

ACCOUNTS.

SECTION 1. A list shall be posted on a club bulletin board not later than the third day of each month, of the amounts (except for annual dues) respectively due by all members on the last day of the preceding month; and at the same time a notice shall be sent to every member notifying him of the amount of his indebtedness and requesting him to pay the same within three weeks after the date of the notice.

SEC. 2. If the indebtedness of any member so notified exceeds twenty-five dollars, and he fails to pay the same within the time specified, and upon the facts being presented at a managers' meeting, he shall cease to be a member of the club unless excused by a vote of two-thirds of the managers present at a meeting.

SEC. 3. A member's indebtedness to the Club shall not exceed one hundred dollars.

SEC. 4. Whenever a member's indebtedness to the Club shall reach the sum of one hundred dollars, his further credit shall be stopped until the entire amount due by him shall have been paid.

SEC. 5. A member introducing a visitor shall be held responsible for his indebtedness to the club.

BY-LAW VIII.

ADDRESSES AND NOTICES.

Every member and visitor shall furnish to the Secretary an address to which all notices and documents required by the By-Laws or Rules to be sent to him, may be sent by mail or otherwise. All notices and documents shall be deemed to have been duly sent or served when posted or otherwise forwarded to the address furnished by him, and in default of his having furnished an address when deposited in the Club letter box.

BY-LAW IX.

AMENDMENTS.

To amend these By-Laws, the proposed amendment shall ; (1) be subscribed by ten members and presented to the President ; (2) the President shall cause it with its signatures to be posted for thirty days on a club bulletin board ; (3) at the time of the posting a copy of the proposed amendment shall be sent by the Secretary to each member ; and (4) the President shall present it to the club at a meeting.

A two-thirds vote shall be required to confirm the proposed amendment.

R U L E S .

ELECTION OF MEMBERS.

1. The proposer and seconder of a candidate for membership or applicant for admission as a visitor are requested to send letters to the Secretary of the Club giving the full name and place of residence of the candidate or applicant and his profession or occupation, with such statement of his qualifications as they may deem proper. Candidates for membership should be personally known by at least one of the Managers.

2. Candidates for membership whose names shall have been laid over at two successive meetings of the Managers shall not be balloted for until the succeeding names, except those of minors on the list shall have been acted on.

3. At the balloting for membership the presiding officer, after having examined or counted the ballots, shall announce the composition and result, and the Secretary shall record the result in the minutes.

4. Any Manager may before the adjournment of the meeting move the reconsideration of a vote either of admission or rejection. After an adjournment no rejected candidate shall within six months be again proposed.

VISITORS.

1. Any person not residing within fifty miles of, or doing business in, the City of New York, may be admitted as a visitor for the period of two weeks, once in six months, upon being introduced by a member, and the name of the visitor being recorded by the member with his own name in the visitors' book and upon the approval of one of the House Committee.

2. Sons of members are admitted to the privileges of the Club House, subject to regulations of the House Committee, on Wednesday and Saturday mornings, between nine and twelve. No children under ten are admitted at any time.
